This is excellent - easy to print, assemble and use right away! We used card pockets for sorting and found that extremely helpful!

Love love love this resource! A creative skill to work on. Students looked up real reviews on some of their favorite businesses and created a review for a writing activity. Sooo many different ways to reinforce this and create new activities. Thank you!

I used this activity with my students who have moderate intellectual disabilities. We use it as part of our vocational skills jobs. My higher functioning students are able to complete the activity independently. My lower functioning students require adult assistance to complete these tasks due to their level of functioning. The activity is an excellent resource!

Hi there,

I was wondering if you have an Australian version of this AWESOME activity. I would love to include it in my classroom.

Hi,

Unfortunately I do not have this available with Australian money but I am looking into it for future resources.

Question July 11, 2018 from Jamie W.
Do you split up the cards into different sorts or use them all?

Answer July 11, 2018 from Adulding Made Easy aka SpedAdulding (TPT Seller)
Hi Jamie,

It depends on which sorting category you are going to focus on for an activity or the level of your student (if they are lower you may want to use less cards). There are a total of 72 "Yalp Business Listing" sorting cards and 6 different sorting activities (Price, Rating, Type of Business, Location, Type of Food, Type of Home Repair). For instance, if you are sorting by type of business, you may want to use all of the cards. If you are sorting by type of food, you will want to use just the restaurant cards. When you download the product, the cards will be labeled and separated into business categories already for you
